EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH
FEBRUARY 2017
ANTHONY MEDICI

Our Employee of the Month for February 2017 is Anthony Medici. Anthony has worked at The Athenaeum for one year and this is his first time being honored as our Employee of the Month.

Anthony is originally from Paris, France. He first moved to the United States about 3 years ago and spent a brief time living in New York before coming to Los Angeles. Prior to working at The Athenaeum as a server, Anthony worked at Quicksilver.

Anthony and his wife, Sandra, are expecting their first child in August.

Congratulations Anthony, on a job well done!

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP DUES INCREASE

The Athenaeum annual 5% dues increase will become effective April 1, 2017 and will be reflected on your April statement. Thank you very much for your continued support.

CALTECH PLAYREADERS: 66TH SEASON ~ THEATER OF THE IMAGINATION

The Playreaders perform staged script-in-hand readings before an audience of Caltech/JPL/Huntington Library friends, meeting six times during the academic year in the Athenaeum. No reservations are needed to attend the reading.

The Cassilis Engagement by St. John Hankin
Directed by Lynne McGrath

The Cassilis Engagement combines the wit of Oscar Wilde and the social satire of Bernard Shaw in a comedy of British upper-crust manners.

(MARISU'S MESSAGE CORNER)

The Monster Awakes The Pavilion

Under the deodar trees
A giant steel and concrete structure emerges
Very imposing, stately, and striking,
But also grand and genteel looking.

Now the monster, the Pavilion, will soon awake
on Tuesday, April 18th
to provide sustenance to all members and guests.

Pizzas made-to-order -
Aromatic with goat cheese, leeks, scallions, roasted garlic and pancetta
An al-fresco-combo with Margarita, Mediterranean and meat calzone.

Between the bread options as well,
Sandwiches featuring
The Pavilion signature burger
a blend of short rib, brisket and chuck on a brioche bun.

Market fresh salads for the lighter side
grilled salmon paillard or a skirt steak;
There is something for everyone who may like their salad hearty or light.

In a rush?
Grab a sandwich, salad or soup and be on your way and go before the lunch crowd sways in.

Be the first at 11:00am - there's lots to eat until 2:00pm.
It will be quick and good starting Tuesday, April 18th!

See you there as the giant Pavilion awakes - ready to nourish the hungry and the famished who soon will find sustenance in its bosom.

Thank you for Supporting The Athenaeum

The Athenaeum Architectural Preservation Fund (AAPF)

The AAPF is an endowment dedicated to the maintenance and restoration of The Athenaeum's physical facilities. This fund ensures that The Athenaeum will remain a vital part of the Caltech community, both now and into the future. We would like to thank the many generous donors to this endowment fund, from 2008 to the present.

Thank you - your support of The Athenaeum is priceless!
